Brenton Farrar is the State Manager for SA & NT at Australian Mortgage Brokers (AMB) and owns the Master Franchise in those states/ territories. Having built a very successful business in two states, Brenton has had to train, mentor and coach many new entrants to the industry. With an extensive knowledge based on a career spanning 17 years at Westpac, three years with Ray White Finance and over 10 years at AMB, Brenton can provide that missing link to your success.

In 2006 Brenton was a winner at the Australian Mortgage Awards and won the AMB's coveted Master Franchise of the Year. He again won this award in 2009. From 2005 through to 2010 he also trained AMB's Rookie of the Year on five separate occasions with their awards presented at the annual AMB Conference and produced a finalist in "Young Gun of the Year" at the 2006 Australian Mortgage Awards. Brenton has also won various AMB awards, such as Most Improved Region in 2006, 2008, & 2009.

Brenton is now a Certified Mentor with the MFAA. If you are new to the industry, or perhaps just looking to take your business to another level, Brenton can provide several options to assist your learning and growth in this dynamic business. As part of a successful national franchise group, he will attempt to keep your learning costs to a minimum, whilst utilizing the training modules provided by the MFAA. A structured and simple programme will be tailored to you, only requiring your 100% dedication to become a successful mortgage consultant and maybe even a successful business owner.

Brenton will be with you every step of the way for this, a two year investment in YOUR future.
