

I am joining MFAA as an Individual Member at the Finance Broker level - as I have a Certificate IV in Mortgage Broking and more than 2 years of loan writing experience in the past 5 years.

How to join MFAA?

1. Create a login for yourself via our website (top right)
2. Review the list below – What will I need to supply MFAA? - and obtain these documents. The National Criminal History Check and Credit Report can take up to 7 working days to obtain. MFAA can supply an instant Credit Check for $18 when you apply for membership.
3. Login and complete the MFAA Initial Compliance Pack online
4. Login and apply for Membership online here

What will I need to supply MFAA?

All required documents should be uploaded as part of your membership application. MFAA require the following:

1. completion of the MFAA Initial Compliance Pack.
2. completion of the MFAA Experience and Skills Evaluation Course (This is in place of having a Mentor due to your 2 years of loan writing experience).
3. a copy of your current External Dispute Resolution (EDR) Scheme membership certificate (AFCA)
4. a copy of your Professional Indemnity (PI) Insurance certificate
5. a copy of your National Criminal History Record Check_which is no more than 3 months old
6. a copy of a photograph identification document
7. a copy of your Credit Report (no more than 3 months old) Note: MFAA can do this check but cannot provide a copy of the document to you. The fee is $18.
8. a copy of your Certificate IV of Mortgage Broking education certificate
9. a copy of your current Resume / Curriculum Vitae (CV) showing at least 2 years of broking/loan writing experience in the past 5 years

Obtaining the Diploma of Mortgage Broking

MFAA regard the Diploma of Mortgage Broking as the minimum educational standard. If you have a Certificate IV of Mortgage Broking, you must complete the Diploma within 12 months of joining MFAA. This is a requirement to renew your membership at the end of your first year of membership.

How much is MFAA membership?

New Membership consists of a one-off joining fee, plus an annual membership fee. See here for the current fees.

What other requirements apply to MFAA membership?

All applications for MFAA Membership:

- must be of good character and repute and a fit and proper person to be an MFAA Member
- must not be currently Bankrupt, or subject to control under the Bankruptcy Act 1966
- will not be accepted for MFAA membership if they have a charge pending involving fraud or dishonesty or have been convicted of, or found to have committed, an offence concerning fraud or dishonesty
- must not be an externally-administered body corporate as that expression is defined in the law
- must be over 18 years of age
- must ensure documents submitted to join MFAA or renew membership are true and accurate
- must reside in Australia holding either Australian or New Zealand citizenship, or permanent resident status in Australia
- must be appropriately licensed or appointed under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009

Declaration: All applicants complete an online declaration as part of the online application, attesting to being a fit and proper person to be an MFAA member. Additional information may be required subject to the answers given.