

I am joining MFAA as an Individual Member at the Finance Broker level - as I have a Diploma of Mortgage Broking and less than 2 years of loan writing experience.

How to join MFAA?

1. Create a login for yourself via our website (top right)
2. Review the list below – What will I need to supply MFAA? - and obtain these documents. The National Criminal History Check and Credit Report can take up to 7 working days to obtain. MFAA can supply an instant Credit Check for $18 when you apply for membership
3. Login and complete the MFAA Initial Compliance Pack online
4. Login and apply for Membership online here

What will I need to supply MFAA?

All required documents should be uploaded as part of your membership application. MFAA require the following:

1. completion of the MFAA Initial Compliance Pack online course
2. a copy of your current External Dispute Resolution (EDR) Scheme membership certificate (AFCA)
3. a copy of your Professional Indemnity (PI) Insurance certificate
4. a copy of your National Criminal History Record Check_which is no more than 3 months old
5. a copy of a photograph identification document
6. a copy of your Credit Report (no more than 3 months old). Note: MFAA can do this check but cannot provide a copy of the document to you. The fee is $18
7. a copy of your Diploma of Mortgage Broking education certificate
8. a copy of your current Resume / Curriculum Vitae (CV) showing less than 2 years of broking/loan writing experience
9. a completed Mentor Confirmation form (find this form when applying to join online). Your mentor can be an MFAA member who is an experienced loan writer (more here) or you can enrol in the MFAA Mentoring Program

How much is MFAA membership?

New Membership consists of a one-off joining fee plus an annual membership fee. See here for the current fees.
