

MFAA Cancellation Policy

MFAA Online Courses:

All cancellations for MFAA online courses must be notified in writing to the MFAA, by emailing professionaldevelopment@mfaa.com.au.

No refund will be given for cancellations received 7 days after an online course has been purchased.

No refund will be given for a course that has been launched.

All refunds will be issued in the same form as the original payment.

Externally Paid Courses:

The vendor's cancellation policy applies when payment is made directly with the vendor.

Face to Face Events:

All cancellations for face to face events must be notified in writing to the MFAA, by emailing events@mfaa.com.au.

No refund will be given for cancellations received 7 days prior to the event date.

Should you not be able to attend the event, a substitute delegate is welcome at no additional cost.

All refunds will be issued in the same form as the original payment.
