

Dawn Inanli

MVI Consulting

0451 864 121

inanlidawn@gmail.com

A Financial Services specialist with a strategic leadership focus on resource allocation, sales analytics, coaching, training and project, Dawn Inanli has over 15 years' experience in the industry and has delivered great results with high performing teams across the B2B and B2C fields. Dawn worked with high profile financial institutions both nationally and overseas across General Management, Broker Engagement, Strategy, Consultancy, Business Development, Broker Operations and Management, as well as a four-year stint with the United Nations in The Hague. Dawn holds firm to the belief that the key to high performance begins with great leadership and the ability to inspire people to achieve their goals. She is passionate about driving results to help develop businesses and take them to the next level through extensive coaching and strategic thinking.